

What is the purpose of the Logo Contest?

In an effort to promote school attendance, Lunenburg County Public Schools has developed a new attendance challenge with the slogan: Attend Today, Achieve Tomorrow! This logo will become the initiative's symbol in our community and it will be placed on decals to promote school attendance for students, staff, parents, businesses, and community members.

What are the logo entry guidelines?

Entries must be submitted in a jpeg format. Logos may be designed any way that is suitable for a school setting and creativity is encouraged. Use colorful eye catching fonts, pictures, etc. The Logo must contain the slogan: Attend Today, Achieve Tomorrow, as well as #LCPSAttendanceChallenge.

Who is eligible to submit logo design entries?

Students at Central High School as well as staff members are eligible to submit logo contest entries.

What does the winner receive?
